2169—THE CHIPMUNK (the larger sized ones are actually mantled ground squirrels) is a saucy, frisky, little beggar ever present in the mountains. He is a general pet with visitors; sitting up and begging for nuts, etc., often taking them from the hands of the feeder, then running to cache it away, only to come back and beg for more.

C. T. ART-COLORTONE, ® SANBORN SOUVENIR CO., DENVER, COLO.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

1B-H570

POST CARD